5 MODULES— ONLINE BASIC FLOWER ARRANGING COURSE IN FLORISTRY

If you are thinking about starting your own business as a flower designer, or want to start to learn new skills that can help you gain work ; this 5 Module Course is right for you. Many floral artists ,by doing some basic but foundation work, then develop other skills as they progress through their career pathway.

IN THE 5 MODULES, YOU WILL LEARN

MODULE 1: Understanding the mechanics of flower design, colour, and texture and the importance of understanding line and taking control of the material you are working with.

MODULE 2: The importance of understanding line in design and the construction of a vertical flower arranging

MODULE 3: Understanding how the vertical and horizontal placements are needed in many forms of flower design and the construction of the bilateral symmetry design.

MODULE 4: Bringing the elements of design into your work and understand why it is important to build a secure foundation in all floral design and arrangements.

MODULE 5: Creating a wider scope and understanding how design elements play a role in all creative floral design work.

BUILDING SKILLS TAKES TIME—BUT LIKE MOST SKILLS— THE MORE YOU PRACTISE, THE BETTER YOU BECOME

This course has been designed to help people who are thinking about a career change and, as yet, are still undecided. It has also been designed to allow people to re-enter employment or to think about starting their own business.

BUILDING YOUR SKILL BASE

As a qualified educator, author and business owner, I have only got to this position by continually working and expanding my experiences. From being a trainee florist in London in the 1960s, creating designs for the Queen's visit, and being the florist for the Prime Minister of Australia, and then going to university; by continually working to expand my skill base, I know that continuous, hard work pays many dividends .

By staying committed to your training, you will conquer many mountains, but above all else, you will feel the positivity within your wellbeing grow, and you will love every moment of the journey you travel.
